

WisGOP: Far-left Sen. Baldwin won't support President Trump's Supreme Court pick

Posted on Thursday, Jul 12, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Alec Zimmerman
(608) 257-4765

[Madison, WI] — Senator Tammy Baldwin – one of the most liberal senators from a state President Trump won in 2016 – has announced that she won't support the president's nominee for the Supreme Court. Following Baldwin's rushed decision, the Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Executive Director Mark Morgan:

“Baldwin's reckless far-left record is once again on display – going so far as to oppose a highly qualified Supreme Court nominee, Brett Kavanaugh, for no reason beyond scoring points with her liberal Washington allies. Instead of standing up for Wisconsin families, Baldwin is siding with Chuck Schumer and D.C. Democrats to obstruct this nominee and once again pick Washington over Wisconsin.”