[Madison, WI] — Governor Walker is fighting to keep Wisconsin working for generations to come, while his opponents are pushing backward policies that would undo Wisconsin's comeback. With his bold, conservative reforms, more people are working in Wisconsin than ever before, our classrooms are funded with historically high actual-dollar investments, our unemployment hit the all-time low, and companies like Haribo and Foxconn are picking Wisconsin to expand their businesses.

"Since day one, these Democrats have been engaged in a dangerous race to the left - pushing backward policies that would undo the reforms that have Wisconsin working," said Alec Zimmerman, spokesman for the Republican Party of Wisconsin. "Wisconsin's comeback is real thanks to the leadership of Governor Walker. We can't let Democrats stop us from moving Wisconsin forward."

- All the Democrats running for governor would repeal Act 10 - even though it has saved taxpayers billions of dollars.
- All the Democrats running for governor oppose Foxconn and the tens of thousands of good-paying, family-supporting jobs that are already being created in every corner of the state.
- Democrats running for governor have embraced a variety of proposals that would include raising taxes on hard-working Wisconsin families.
- While Governor Walker is standing up for victims and keeping Wisconsin safe, the Democrats running for governor are embracing a reckless plan to cut our state's prison population in half. Today, that would put thousands of criminals with violent offenses out on the street.
