[Madison, WI] — A far-left group is declaring “open political season” on Republican leaders Scott Walker and Leah Vukmir. An image on Citizen Action Wisconsin’s website put an actual target over a picture of Walker and Vukmir – despite the fact that Wisconsin Republicans have repeatedly faced death threats for standing up for what they believe.

Two of the Democrats’ top targets in the fall elections are under a literal bull’s-eye in a photo appearing on a liberal group’s website — a graphic being criticized by some Republicans because of past death threats against Gov. Scott Walker.

In a graphic promoting Citizen Action Wisconsin’s latest episode of their podcast titled “Open Political Season,” Walker and Sen. Leah Vukmir (R-Brookfield) appear to be standing behind a bull’s-eye target.
