

WisGOP: Leah Vukmir is law enforcement's choice for U.S. Senate

Posted on Tuesday, Oct 30, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Alec Zimmerman
(608) 257-4765

[Madison, WI] — Yesterday, the Milwaukee Police Association endorsed Leah Vukmir for the U.S. Senate. While Tammy Baldwin isn't serious about securing our border or protecting our communities, Leah Vukmir will fight to enforce our immigration laws, build the wall, and keep Wisconsin families safe.

See the full story from the Daily Caller here or read excerpts below.

Police Union Throws Support Behind Leah Vukmir

The Daily Caller
Tim Pearce
October 29, 2018

The Milwaukee Police Association (MPA) endorsed the Wisconsin GOP candidate for Senate, Leah Vukmir, over incumbent Democratic Sen. Tammy Baldwin Monday.

...

“Leah Vukmir has shown an unwavering commitment to backing the badge and helping police keep Wisconsin safe,” MPA President Mike Crivello said in a statement. “When it comes to protecting our families from violent criminals, cracking down on drug trafficking and supporting law enforcement, there has been no stronger champion than Leah.”

...

Political heavy-hitters from both sides of the aisle are traveling to Wisconsin to campaign for candidates in the swing state. Former President Barack Obama spoke at a rally Friday to generate support for Baldwin, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Tony Evers and others.

See the full story from the Daily Caller here.