[Madison, WI] — Judge Michael Screnock has advanced to the April General Election after tonight's primary. Screnock, who came in first, will advance to face liberal activist Judge Rebecca Dallet in the April General Election. The Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Chairman Brad Courtney:

“Judge Screnock is the only candidate running for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice who will uphold the rule of law and defend our Constitution. I want to be the first to congratulate him on a hard-fought primary, and to rally conservatives who must help in the hard work of doing what it takes to ensure that he wins in April.”
