[Madison, WI] — Today Vice President Mike Pence, Governor Scott Walker, and Congressman Glenn Grothman will meet in Wisconsin to talk about the impact of tax cuts and other Republican reforms that are putting hard-working Wisconsin families first. Thanks to their leadership, Republicans are delivering real results for Wisconsin and the rest of the nation. The Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Chairman Brad Courtney:

“Republican reforms are working and putting hard-working families of our state and our nation first. In Wisconsin, Governor Scott Walker has created a model for meaningful conservative reform by delivering real results from cutting taxes to bringing down the unemployment rate to the lowest in state history. In Washington, President Trump and Vice President Pence are cutting regulations and signing historic tax reform into law. Republicans are getting things done for Wisconsin.”
