Upon the conclusion of the meeting, Waukesha YR Chairman Nik Rettinger issued the following statement: "The Waukesha Young Republicans have been hard at the work the past few months doing everything possible including parades, doors, calls, and events to highlight our party's results and conservative ideals to voters and to get our great team of candidates elected. Today, our membership voted to take the next step in directly supporting those candidates they believe to be the best advocates for conservatism and keeping Wisconsin moving forward. The Waukesha YRs are proud of the incredible comeback Wisconsin has seen giving our generation the opportunity for success instead of dependence on government to just get by. We intend to keep growing our movement as millennials continue to leave the failed agenda of the Democrat Party and keep pushing to victory this November."
