The election of a new Supreme Court Justice will impact the lives of Wisconsin families for years to come. We are active and retired judges from the Municipal Court, Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals in Milwaukee County. We have decades of experience in the courtroom, and we know how important it is to restore our highest court's national reputation for fairness and integrity.

Judge Lisa Neubauer, Chief Judge of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, has earned the respect and endorsement of 340 judges statewide – over 98% of endorsing judges in this election – for good reason; she has the character, experience and qualifications that the people of Wisconsin have a right to expect from their Supreme Court.

Judge Neubauer was a practicing lawyer for 20 years and has been an Appeals Court Judge for 11 years. She has proven herself to be fair, impartial and independent. She keeps politics out of the courtroom and has no agenda except to follow the rule of law. Judge Neubauer is a hard-working and intelligent judge who decides cases based upon the facts, not her own preconceived notions of what the law should be. She also has a patient and thoughtful demeanor, and works well with her colleagues, lawyers and court officials.
