Cedarburg- Mid-Moraine Municipal Court Judge Steve Cain announced the endorsement of Ozaukee County District Attorney Adam Gerol. Gerol has served as District Attorney for almost ten years and is a resident of Mequon.

“I am honored and humbled to receive the endorsement of Adam,” commented Cain. “Adam is an outstanding District Attorney. Adam works tirelessly to keep Ozaukee County safe and is widely respected by the legal community. Adam and I share a great respect for Ozaukee County and its justice system.”

“Steve Cain is an extremely fine lawyer, well versed in the real work we do in our courthouse,” stated District Attorney Gerol. “He understands what’s important to the citizens of Ozaukee County, and has the knowledge, experience and acumen to be an outstanding circuit court judge. I strongly endorse Steve.”

About Steve. Cain has served as a municipal court judge for nearly 10 years and has practiced law in Ozaukee County for nearly 20 years. He is an active community member having served as President of the Cedarburg-Grafton Rotary Club, Wisconsin Municipal Judges Association and Ozaukee County Bar Association. He resides in Cedarburg with his wife Heather and two sons.
