Madison, Wis. (July 2, 2019) – Edgewood College today announced that Amber Schultz, Ed.D. has been named Vice President for Enrollment Management.

Dr. Schultz currently serves as Assistant Vice President for Admissions, Marketing, and Recruitment at St. Cloud State University in St. Cloud, Minn. Dr. Schultz also served as adjunct faculty member in the Higher Education Administration Master's Program at St. Cloud State. She begins her new role at Edgewood College on July 29, 2019.

"We are excited to welcome Amber in this important role," President Scott Flanagan said. "Her experience in Enrollment Management, passion for access and success, and alignment with the College's mission and values make her an ideal fit."

As Vice President for Enrollment Management, Dr. Schultz will oversee Undergraduate Admissions, Graduate Admissions, Financial Aid, and Marketing & Strategic Communications. She will also serve as a member of the President's Council.

Prior to her current role, she held leadership positions in Enrollment Management at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, The University of Minnesota – Crookston, and Winona State University. Dr. Schultz holds an undergraduate degree from UW-LaCrosse, a Master of Science in Educational Leadership degree from Winona State University in Winona, Minn., and a doctoral degree from the University of Minnesota.
