

Eppstein Uhen Architects: Celebrates years long relationship with Goodman Community Center

Posted on Monday, Sep 30, 2019

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

MADISON, WI, September 30, 2019 — Eppstein Uhen Architects \(EUA\) has partnered with Goodman Community Center \(GCC\) for over 14 years; and EUA is celebrating another collaboration with GCC with a sponsorship of the Community Learning Suite. “Since 2005 EUA has been a proud partner, architect and supporter of Goodman Community Center. We are honored to have helped create spaces that encourage connection and elevate the Madison community.” – Rich Tennesen, President, EUA.

The first EUA designed building was the historic Iron Works building which was completed in 2008. The new Brass Works building was completed in 2018 and further supports the Madison community. Over the years, EUA along with the EUA Foundation, have made other donations to support the work GCC does. Learn more from GCC’s Executive Director, Becky Steinhoff, along with EUA Madison Team members in this video Click Here.

Eppstein Uhen Architects (EUA) is best known for designing environments that elevate people’s potential. More than 230 employees in Madison, Milwaukee and Denver demonstrate unparalleled commitment to the markets, communities and clients they serve. The respected 112-year old firm specializes in several markets including education, workplace, healthcare, senior living, student housing, mixed-use, entertainment, science + technology and community. For additional information, please visit the firm’s website at eua.com.