MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers today released the following statement relating to the March to Madison for Public Education Funding:

“These educators and advocates marched all the way to Madison because they believe, as I do, that doing what’s best for our kids is what’s best for our state. There’s still time for Republicans to put politics aside and to do the right thing for our kids, our schools, and our educators, and I hope they’ll listen to what the people of our state are saying loud and clear today.”
