MILWAUKEE – The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 494 announced their support of Governor-elect Tony Evers' cabinet appointments of Dawn Crim as the next Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services and Caleb Frostman as the next Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development.

“Dawn brings a wide range of expertise on licenses and regulations issues and will be a very valuable asset for the Evers administration and for policymaking in Wisconsin,” IBEW Local 494 Business Manager Dean Warsh, said.

“Caleb has demonstrated the ability that he knows how to work with all stakeholders to meet the workforce needs of our state. Caleb Frostman will be both responsible and prepared to fight for the next generation of the workforce.”
