MILWAUKEE — Judge Jill Karofsky, candidate for Wisconsin Supreme Court, announced today the endorsement of 48 current and former judges from across Wisconsin.

“Judge Jill Karofsky is a skilled attorney and judge,” said Judge Tim Hinkfuss, Brown County Circuit Court. “She has decades of real-world experience in the law and understands that what happens in courtrooms has a real effect on people. She’s the best choice for Wisconsin’s Supreme Court.”

“Jill cares deeply about precedent and the rule of law,” said Judge Everett Mitchell, Dane County Circuit Court. “She always strives to make the best decision based on the law and the needs of the community. I support Jill Karofsky for Supreme Court Justice.”

“I enthusiastically support Judge Jill Karofsky for Justice,” said retired Judge Jeff Kremers, Milwaukee County Circuit Court. “She has the right experience, values, and energy to be successful. Wisconsin will be in good hands with Judge Karofsky on our Supreme Court.”

“In the next few years, the court will confront critical issues that go to the very nature of our constitutional democracy, and there’s no one better to ensure we adhere to the rule of law and Wisconsin’s core values than Judge Jill Karofsky,” said Judge Audrey Skwierawski, Milwaukee County Circuit Court. “She has a deep understanding of the courtroom and the commitment to an independent judiciary that we need.”

Judge Karofsky currently serves as a circuit court judge in Dane County, and also has the public support of Justice Rebecca Dallet and former Governors Jim Doyle and Tony Earl, as well as more than 20 state legislators. She has earned the bipartisan support of judges, sheriffs, DAs, local elected officials, and community leaders across Wisconsin.
