RACINE — The Chief Judge Lisa Neubauer for Justice Campaign today released its fundraising numbers for the pre-general period, showing more than $860,000 raised over the six-week period, and $615,000 on hand as of March 18.

The Neubauer for Justice campaign now has nearly 6,000 donors, and has raised more than $1,700,000 since announcing last summer. The cover sheet of their finance report is linked here. Neubauer for Justice has now raised more than any previous campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court.

“From endorsements to fundraising to grassroots engagement, our campaign is seeing unprecedented support,” said Tyler Hendricks, campaign manager. “Chief Judge Neubauer has the momentum in this race as we hit the home stretch: 98% of the judicial endorsements, an army of grassroots volunteers, and historic fundraising success. Wisconsinites know that Judge Neubauer is the fair, independent, impartial jurist we need on the Supreme Court.”
