MILWAUKEE — Judge Jill Karofsky, candidate for Wisconsin Supreme Court, announced today the endorsement of twenty current and former state legislators from across Wisconsin.

“I trust Judge Jill Karofsky,” said State Senator LaTonya Johnson (D-Milwaukee). “She has the values, the experience, and the background to be an excellent Supreme Court Justice.”

“Judge Jill Karofsky has the Wisconsin values we need in a Supreme Court justice,” said State Representative Jodi Emerson (D-Eau Claire). “I am confident she will be a fair and impartial Justice.”

“Judge Jill Karofsky has spent her career working for the betterment of her community, and Wisconsin as a whole,” said State Representative Shelia Stubbs (D-Madison). “Her background and values make her the best choice for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice.”

Judge Karofsky currently serves as a criminal court judge in Dane County, and has also announced the public support of Justice Rebecca Dallet and former Governor Jim Doyle. She has earned the bipartisan support of judges, sheriffs, DAs, local elected officials, and community leaders across Wisconsin.
