Jason Culotta, President of the Midwest Food Products Association issued the following statement in response to news that the United States House of Representatives passage of the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA):

“The Midwest Food Products Association applauds the House for passing a modernized trade agreement. Food manufacturers, agri-businesses and consumers will benefit through improved trade relationships the deal provides with our neighbors in Mexico and Canada.

As we commend the House for its passage of USMCA, we encourage the Senate to similarly adopt this important trade pact.”
