

Milwaukee Mayor Barrett, city leaders, and community partners: To hold Denim Day press conference

Posted on Tuesday, Apr 23, 2019

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Milwaukee, WI – Tomorrow, Wednesday, April 24 is Denim Day. Denim Day is an international day of awareness to call attention to sexual violence and end victim blaming. April is also Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Mayor Barrett, along with other community and city leaders, will be holding a press conference in solidarity with survivors of sexual assault and violence.

Visit www.denimdaymke.org for materials, a calendar of events, and more ideas on how you can get involved – #denimdaymke. Also, learn more about ongoing ways to end the violence in Milwaukee through the Blueprint for Peace at www.414Life.com.

WHEN: Wednesday, April 24, 2019

10:00 a.m.

WHO: Reggie Moore, City of Milwaukee Health Department Office of Violence Prevention

Mayor Tom Barrett, City of Milwaukee

United States Congresswoman Gwen Moore

Dr. Jeanette Kowalik, City of Milwaukee Health Department Health Commissioner

Rosamaria Martinez, Sixteenth Street Community Health Centers

Deborah Black, Gerald L. Ignace Indian Health Center, Inc.

Rafael Mercado, Team HAVOK

Sharain Horn, Aurora Healing and Advocacy Services

Amanda Yang, Hmong American Women's Association

Britny Helmrich, Youth Ambassador

WHERE: Potawatomi Hotel & Casino

1721 W. Canal Street

Milwaukee, WI 53233

Prosperity Room