

Moore: Dems need GOP help to move forward with impeachment

Posted on Sunday, Jun 2, 2019

U.S. Rep. Gwen Moore called for the impeachment of President Donald Trump in a raucous address at the state Dem convention.

But Moore said she understood House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's hesitancy to move forward with impeachment proceedings.

"We do need Justin Amash's of the world," she said, referring to the Republican congressman from Michigan who has also called for Trump's impeachment.

Moore slammed Trump over his repeated disruption of so-called infrastructure week, which she said was one of the few policy items that Republicans and Dems in Congress could agree on.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

She also said the president was incapable of grasping concepts taught to kindergarteners. Moore listed ten items taught to four- and five-year-olds, ranging from playing fair to washing your hands before you eat.

"Be careful of hidden germs like Vladamir Putin," she said.