Madison – Andrew Disch, Wisconsin political director for the North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters, issued the following statement regarding the announcement by the Democratic National Committee that its 2020 convention will take place at Fiserv Forum in Milwaukee:

“The Carpenters Union is thrilled that the 2020 Democratic National Convention will take place at the union-built Fiserv Forum. Carpenters helped build the arena and are proud of their work. We look forward to showing off our work and working with the DNC to make the convention a success. See you in Milwaukee!”
