Event Description:

Professional Women's Development Network Breakfast

Finding Your Leader Within

Mary Dowell, founder & CEO of MJ Dowell & Associates, LLC, will use concepts from her book "Playing Through the Fence" to show how perseverance and finding the right support systems can cause the leader within each of us to break through barriers and achieve success.

The Professional Women's Development Network encourages each member's individual potential through a supportive environment and a variety of educational and motivational programs. The network motivates and encourages women by celebrating the unique contributions that women bring to business.

Location:

The Delafield Hotel
