Mount Pleasant, Wis. - March 28, 2019 – The following statement was issued today regarding the award of bids to Wisconsin contractors and upcoming information sessions for the advanced manufacturing campus phase of the Wisconn Valley Science & Technology Park by Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave, Village of Mount Pleasant President David DeGroot and RCEDC Executive Director Jenny Trick:

“Today’s announcement is another significant step forward toward LCD displays being manufactured right here in Racine County. To-date, Foxconn and Gilbane | Exyte have more than delivered on their commitment to putting ‘Wisconsin First’ in hiring contractors for work related to Wisconn Valley Science & Technology Park. We look forward to the opportunities the additional bid packages and information sessions will provide for even more Racine County and Wisconsin contractors to play a role in this transformative project.”
