APPLETON – Today, Rep. Amanda Stuck announced the latest listening session of her campaign for the 8th Congressional District. Rep. Stuck will be in Menominee to hear from residents about the issues affecting Wisconsinites.

“As I continue my listening tour of the 8th Congressional District, it is clear the residents want someone who will listen to their concerns. We have heard a lot about the struggles of the working class, making healthcare not only more affordable but also accessible and other kitchen table issues not being addressed in Washington. The 8th deserves a Representative willing to listen and act on their behalf,” said Rep. Stuck.

WHEN: Friday October 18th, 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

WHERE: Cultural Building on the campus of the College of Menominee Nation N168 W172 Highway 47/55 Keshena, WI 54135

Amanda and her husband, David, a union sheet metal journeyman, are raising four children together in Appleton. Rep. Stuck represents the 57th district in Wisconsin’s State Assembly.
