MADISON – Representative Gae Magnafici (R-Dresser) was sworn in as the state representative for Wisconsin’s 28th Assembly District this afternoon as the state Assembly convened to begin its 104th session. Rep. Magnafici joins the Assembly with 35 years’ experience as a nurse and a current small business owner. She and her husband, Tom, currently reside just outside of Dresser.

“I am both excited and proud to get to work here in Madison and make positive changes for my constituents back home,” said Rep. Magnafici. “Healthcare and the economy are two issues that affect everyone, and my experience as a nurse and small business owner will bring an invaluable perspective to our already strong Republican caucus.”

Rep. Magnafici will serve as the Vice-Chair of the Assembly Committee on Substance Abuse and Prevention, as well as serve as a member of the Assembly Committees on Aging and Long Term Care, Constitution and Ethics, Health, Jobs and the Economy, Mental Health, and Tourism.
