MADISON – Rep. Oldenburg (Viroqua) is seeking First Responder of the Year nominations. October is First Responders Appreciation Month, and Rep. Oldenburg is looking forward to learning more about the First Responders who serve in the 96th district.

“First Responders are everyday heroes. Opening the nominations to all the communities in the 96th district is something I find to be very important. Allowing people who have had a firsthand experience with exceptional First Responders is going to be a great way to learn more about the heroes in my district,” said Rep. Oldenburg

Rep. Oldenburg has created a page on his official State Assembly website where the nominations can be cast. The deadline for First Responder of the Year nominations is September 6, 2019.
