MADISON – With today’s inauguration ceremony, State Representative Mike Rohrkaste (R-Neenah) begins his third term in the Wisconsin State Assembly. Rep. Rohrkaste took the oath of office to join the 104th Wisconsin State Legislature today in the Assembly Chambers.

“I am grateful to the people of the 55th Assembly District for putting their trust in me to represent them in Madison for another term,” said Rep. Rohrkaste. “Last session we accomplished a lot in the fields of healthcare and mental health access, workforce development, and education funding. I look forward to continuing to advocate for my district and the needs of the state as I continue for my second term serving on the Joint Committee on Finance.”

Rep. Rohrkaste will have two full-time staff members in his Madison office. Joining his office as Research Assistant is Michael Luckey. Michael previously worked as a Policy Advisor for Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steineke from Kaukauna, and most recently directed the Wisconsin Interagency Council on Homelessness during its inaugural year. Matt Pulda, who worked for Rep. Rohrkaste last session, will continue as Legislative Assistant.

Representative Rohrkaste’s office is located at 321 East in the Wisconsin State Capitol. He can be reached at (608) 266-5719 or by e-mail at
