Brookfield, WI- Today, Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (WI-05), the Dean of the Wisconsin Delegation, offered the following statement after Congressman Sean Duffy (WI-07) announced that he will step down from the House of Representatives:

“Sean and Rachel Duffy are dear friends and proud patriots. It has been an honor to mentor them and watch them excel, and I thank them for their service and leadership. They and their children are family to me. While it comes as a great loss to the people of Wisconsin, I understand the challenging times ahead for the Duffy family and respect their decision. Sean, Rachel, their unborn child, and the rest of the family are in my prayers. As I have seen them overcome many challenges before, I am confident that they will undertake this one with prayerful and humble hearts.”
