MADISON – Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steineke (R-Kaukauna) released the following statement regarding Oneida Nation Chairman Tehassi Hill’s State of the Tribes address:

“I was honored to have the Assembly host a strong voice from northeast Wisconsin to deliver the State of the Tribes address this afternoon. The Oneida Nation is an incredibly important asset to our communities and state. I look forward to continuing to collaborate with Chairman Tehassi Hill and other tribal leaders to ensure our state and tribes can keep thriving.”
