APPLETON - Today, Appleton Firefighters Local 257 announced their endorsement of Rep. Amanda Stuck for Congress in Wisconsin's 8th Congressional District.

"I'm honored to accept the endorsement of Appleton Firefighters Local 257 and to have earned the support of so many men and women who work to protect our communities. It has been an honor to work with the members of Local 257 as a State Representative and I look forward to representing them in Washington." Stuck said of the endorsement.

"Amanda Stuck has been a champion for Wisconsin families for all of her professional life," said Mike Woodzicka of Appleton Firefighters Local 257. "She understands that Washington isn't working for Wisconsin families and will work to make the changes that so many families in Northeast Wisconsin are hoping for. That's why Appleton Firefighters Local 257 is proud to endorse Amanda for Congress."

Amanda Stuck is running for Congress in Wisconsin's 8th Congressional District. Rep. Stuck has served in the State Assembly since 2015 and is raising four children with her husband David in Appleton.
