MADISON – State Representative JoCasta Zamarripa (D-Milwaukee) released the following statement on the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) holding their annual convention in Milwaukee:

“I’m so proud to welcome the nation’s oldest and most widely respected Hispanic civil rights organization to my hometown. Latinos represent a young, growing constituency in the state of Wisconsin, and I’m so happy to belong to an organization that advocates for education, housing, health care and basic human rights for all. To LULAC I say, welcome to the great state of Wisconsin and my favorite city in America! ¡Bienvenidos!”
