MADISON, Wis. – State Senator Tom Tiffany (R-Minocqua) released the following statement after Governor Evers unveiled his biennial budget:

“Eight years of sound fiscal management has given us a great opportunity to fund our priorities. Governor Evers’ budget proposal dumped a blizzard of spending on Wisconsin residents. It will be a tough task to dig out of, but we cannot allow the people of Wisconsin to be buried by reckless spending which will put a deep freeze on Wisconsin’s economy.”

The Governor’s budget is clearly a Madison-first budget that uses Madison math to pay for things we cannot afford. As a member of the Joint Finance Committee, taxpayers will always come first when crafting the state budget.”
