Minocqua, Wis. — U.S. Congressional Candidate Tom Tiffany announced the endorsement of several sheriffs from across the 7th Congressional District on Wednesday:

“Law enforcement officers risk their lives every day to protect and serve Wisconsinites,” Tiffany said. “We must remain committed to support the brave men and women who protect us, and I am honored to receive the endorsement from sheriffs who honorably serve our communities.

“While the radical left and domestic hate groups like ANTIFA take to the streets to push an anti-law enforcement agenda that includes abolishing ICE, we’ve seen too many of our heroes in blue become victim to their attacks. I’ll have their backs.”

The following sheriffs endorsed Tom Tiffany:

- Florence County Sheriff Dan Miller
- Forest County Sheriff John Dennee
- Langlade County Sheriff Mark Westen
- Lincoln County Sheriff Ken Schneider
- Marathon County Sheriff Scott Parks
- Oneida County Sheriff Grady Hartman
- Polk County Sheriff Brent Waak
- Price County Sheriff Brian Schmidt
- Vilas County Sheriff Joe Fath

- Former Washburn County Sheriff Terry Dryden
