Madison – Today, Assistant Minority Leader Dianne Hesselbein (D-Middleton) announced that she will serve on eight standing committees when the Wisconsin State Legislature starts the 2019-20 legislative session. Rep. Hesselbein will continue to serve as the ranking Democrat on the Assembly Committee on Veterans and Military Affairs. First elected in 2012, Rep. Hesselbein was sworn in for her fourth term in the Wisconsin State Assembly. Below is a full list of the committee assignments for Rep. Hesselbein, as decided by Assembly Minority Leader Gordon Hintz:

- Assembly Committee on Veterans and Military Affairs (Ranking Democrat)
- Assembly Committee on Colleges and Universities
- Assembly Committee on Sporting Heritage
- Assembly Committee on Financial Institutions
- Assembly Committee on Insurance
- Joint Committee on Legislative Council
- Assembly Committee on Assembly Organization
- Assembly Committee on Rules

“I want to thank Assembly Democratic Leader Gordon Hintz for appointing me to these important standing committees for the upcoming legislative session. These committee assignments will allow me to continue to be a leading voice for our state’s military veterans, while also being able to work on various legislative issues important to the residents of the 79th Assembly District.

“Again, I want to thank Assembly Democratic Leader Gordon Hintz for appointing me to these standing committees in the Wisconsin State Assembly. It is an honor to serve in the State Assembly on behalf of my constituents.”
