Madison: The 104th Legislative Session began yesterday, with Rep. Tittl (R-Manitowoc) being sworn in to serve for a fourth term in the Wisconsin State Assembly. He represents the 25th Assembly district, which includes parts of Manitowoc and Calumet Counties.

“Being elected to serve for another term in the Assembly is a humbling experience,” said Rep. Tittl. “I am excited to continue advocating for Northeast Wisconsin and bringing my constituents’ ideas to Madison.”

Rep. Tittl will focus on expanding mental health care access, promoting sustainable economic opportunities for businesses, protecting the state’s vital sporting heritage, and lessening the tax burden on the people of Wisconsin.

During the 104th Legislative Session, Rep. Tittl will serve on the Mental Health, Consumer Protection, International Affairs and Commerce, Jobs and the Economy, Sporting Heritage, and Veterans and Military Affairs Committees. Rep. Tittl was joined by his wife, Julie, and his grandson, Grant, for the ceremony. He is one of 99 State Assembly members.

For the 2019-2020 term, Rep. Tittl’s office will be located in 219 North in the Wisconsin State Capitol. Members of the community can reach him at 888-529-0025, rep.tittl@legis.wisconsin.gov, or by mail at P.O. Box 8953, Madison, WI 53708.

“If there is anything I can do to assist my constituents, I encourage them to contact me,” said Rep. Tittl. “Having open, respectful dialogue is key, so I can continue working for the people of the 25th while in Madison.”
