De Pere, Wis.: Scott Teerlinck, president of Werner Electric Supply in Appleton, will present “Transforming Disruption into Opportunity – Evolving to Meet the Needs of Tomorrow’s Employees and Customers” as part of St. Norbert College’s CEO Breakfast and Strategy Series on Tuesday, Jan. 15, from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. at Butte des Morts Country Club in Appleton. The session is sponsored by Davis & Kuelthau S.C.

Since 1948, Werner Electric Supply has provided customers with quality electrical products and services. Teerlinck was named president in January 2013. He is responsible for the executive management of Werner Electric Supply and its related entities. Teerlinck’s other responsibilities include long-term strategic planning, mergers and acquisitions, growth strategies and execution, and reinforcing the company’s strong reputation with customer and vendor partners.

This is the 21st year that the college has provided this educational resource for area business professionals. All presenters are outstanding business and community leaders who share their unique strategies for meeting challenges facing American businesses today. The presenting sponsor for the CEO series is WPS Health Solutions; the title sponsors are Miron Construction, Johnson Bank, Johnson Insurance and Insight Publications.

The registration fee is $60 for an individual session or $450 for the entire eight-session series. For more information or to register, contact St. Norbert College at <http://tickets.snc.edu/tickets>, email jamie.mcguire@snc.edu or visit www.snc.edu/ceobreakfast.

All sessions are from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. and take place at the Butte des Morts

Country Club, Appleton, or the F. K. Bemis International Center at St. Norbert College, De Pere.
