

Wrapping up the convention

Posted on Saturday, May 18, 2019

The convention has adjourned, and the WisPolitics.com team is out of here.

There are still some festivities tonight and a prayer breakfast tomorrow, which former Gov. Scott Walker is expected to attend after spending Saturday at the wedding of former staffers.

A state GOP spokesman says there were 664 delegates, alternates and registered guests at this year's convention. By comparison, the party said there were about 800 attendees at the 2017 convention in the Wisconsin Dells, the last time activists gathered in an off year.

Next year's convention will be May 15-17 in Green Bay.
