WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today in the House Financial Services Committee, Democrats voted down Wisconsin Congressman Sean Duffy's amendment to prevent financial institutions from providing financial assistance to cannabis-related businesses that are near schools.

Read the Amendment HERE or below.

“SEC. 10. PROHIBITION ON PROVIDING FINANCIAL SERVICES TO CANNABIS-RELATED LEGITIMATE

BUSINESSES LOCATED IN CERTAIN AREAS.

“A depository institution may not provide financial services to a cannabis-related legitimate business that is located within 1000 feet of a school, youth center, public park, child care facility, housing facility owned by a public housing authority, civic center, or designated “drug-free” zone.”
