La Crosse –U.S. Rep. Ron Kind’s office is now accepting applications from individuals interested in attending one of our nation’s service academies. Students must submit their applications by Friday, October 18, 2019.

“Each year I am able to nominate motivated students from Wisconsin to become our military leaders of the future,” said Rep. Ron Kind. “I am always impressed by the outstanding young Wisconsinites that seek to attend our nation’s military academies and I’m looking forward to meeting this year’s applicants.”

A Congressional nomination is required for students interested in attending the following academies:

- U.S. Military Academy at West Point, New York
- U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland
- U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado
- U.S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York

The application process is open to any United States citizen who will be a high school graduate. Generally, high school students entering their senior year apply for admittance for the following year.

Interested applicants can obtain the necessary forms and information by contacting Mark Aumann in Rep. Kind's Eau Claire office at (715) 831-9214.
