WASHINGTON, D.C.—Bryan Steil released a statement regarding President Trump's visit to Wisconsin to discuss the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement.

“President Trump understands that access to international markets, job creation, and higher wages are vital for Wisconsin's farmers and workers. From farmers across the state to workers at manufacturing companies like Derco, USMCA will benefit Wisconsin. I am missing today's event in Milwaukee so I can stand up for our men and women in uniform and vote in opposition to Speaker Pelosi's defense bill that cuts funding for military personnel and prohibits funding to alleviate the crisis at our southern border.”
