Congressman Bryan Steil will hold a listening session in each of the six counties in the First District on Friday, February 1, 2019 and Monday, February 4, 2019. The listening sessions are free and open to the people of Wisconsin's First Congressional District. Constituents are encouraged to attend to discuss issues pending in Congress or to request assistance dealing with federal agencies. Individuals needing additional assistance or special accommodations should contact the Office of Congressman Steil at 608-752-4050 in advance.

"I'm excited to hear directly from those in our community about what's on their minds and how we can improve our government," said Steil.
