MADISON, Wis. – University of Wisconsin System President Ray Cross issued this statement today:

“Congratulations to Governor Tony Evers on his inauguration and to members of the State Legislature as they are sworn into office today. As a former member of the University of Wisconsin System’s Board of Regents, Governor Evers knows the vital role UW institutions play as part of the talent pipeline to make the Badger State a great place to learn, work, and live. We look forward to working with Governor Evers and the State Legislature in the months and years ahead.”
