MINOCQUA, WI – Just weeks after announcing his run for Wisconsin’s 7th Congressional District, State Senator Tom Tiffany announced several endorsements from elected leaders in Western Wisconsin. These endorsements include: State Representatives Shannon Zimmerman (R-River Falls), Gae Magnafici (R-Dresser), State Representative Rob Stafsholt (R-New Richmond), and Romaine Quinn (R-Barron).

“Senator Tiffany has a solid track record of standing up for rural Wisconsin. His business experience and ability to get things done is much needed in Washington,” said Representative Romaine Quinn. “I’m confident he is the best candidate to deliver results for Western and Northern Wisconsin.”

“There is a lot of dysfunction in Washington right now. Our next Congressman needs to be able to rise above the fray and be a clear voice for all of the people in the 7th Congressional District,” said Representative Shannon Zimmerman. “Senator Tiffany has done that for the people of Northern Wisconsin in Madison, and I believe he can do the same in Washington.”

“Tom Tiffany is a proven conservative,” said Representative Gae Magnafici. “He has consistently safeguarded our Western Wisconsin values and is a staunch defender of our constitutional rights. We need more people like Tom in Washington.”

“I am endorsing Tom Tiffany because I truly believe he will be a great Congressman for Northwestern Wisconsin,” added Representative Rob Stafsholt. “Tom is my colleague, conservative ally, and most importantly my friend.”

Senator Tom Tiffany added, “I grew up on a dairy farm near Elmwood. Western Wisconsin needs a Congressman who understands their challenges, and I appreciate the continued support from elected leaders in that part of the state. My campaign is focused on building a strong grassroots effort, and I know it will take all of us to send a powerful message to Washington that things need to get done.”
