

Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities: Registration deadline for Circles of Life Conference extended to April 24

Posted on Wednesday, Apr 17, 2019

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Join parents, families, educators and providers from across the state for the 35th annual Circles of Life Conference! Your child with special needs can participate in sessions just for them, called the Gathering of Youth, and their siblings can join the Sibshop sessions!

Circles of Life is Wisconsin's annual conference for families who have children with disabilities. This event brings together families and the providers who support them to learn, connect, and become more knowledgeable about programs and services for their children.

Registration and hotel information are available in the Conference Brochure or go directly to the online registration at bit.ly/Circles2019

Registration has been extended to April 24th - there will be no onsite registration this year.

PLEASE NOTE: The Holiday Inn is full but there are rooms available at the Fairfield Inn at 5317 US Highway 10 East, Stevens Point, WI 54482 - (715) 342-9300

To learn more about the conference go to CirclesofLifeConference.com

Circles of Life is sponsored in part by the WI Board for People with Developmental Disabilities.