MADISON - At this critical time for agriculture in our state, Wisconsin's farmers need Brad Pfaff fighting for them not legislators fighting about Brad Pfaff.

Brad Pfaff has dedicated his career to fighting for Wisconsin's farmers at every level - local state and federal - and is a passionate champion for their success, well-being and increasingly, survival.

Just as every governor's transition team has done for the last 30 years, we recommended the most talented person to take on this public service role and put Wisconsin's farmers first. That's exactly what Secretary-designee Brad Pfaff was asked to do by Governor Evers and why he should be confirmed as soon as possible.
