MADISON, Wis. – Attorney General Josh Kaul today announced the appointment of Nate Zolik for senior counsel.

“With his experience in and outside of state government, Nate will make an excellent addition to our team. I look forward to working with him to make our communities safer,” said AG Kaul.

Nate Zolik – Senior Counsel

Zolik previously worked as an attorney on regulatory and administrative law matters at Godfrey & Kahn. He also has served as chief of staff and senior adviser at the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, chief legal counsel to then-Governor Jim Doyle, and worked in private practice in New York City. Zolik graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School, cum laude, and received his undergraduate degree from the University of Dayton.
