[Madison, WI] – Governor Evers' weak leadership has been on full display the last few weeks as he struggles to establish firm positions on several key policy positions. After a year on the campaign trail making repeated promises to score political points with his base, Evers has been unable to decide whether or not to stand behind such promises. In this most recent example of ineptitude, Evers boasted of taking decisive action on the federal Obamacare lawsuit in an attempt to garner Democratic praise, only to pull a complete reversal the very next day.
