MADISON, Wis. – Attorney General Josh Kaul today released a statement and video to commemorate Law Enforcement Memorial Week, or National Police. Across the nation communities are honoring the law enforcement who have fallen in the line of duty.

“This week, we remember the heroic officers who lost their lives while protecting our communities, and we rededicate ourselves to supporting their families and those who served with them,” said Attorney General Kaul. “Thank you to all Wisconsin law enforcement officers, and the families that stand with them, for all you do for our communities, especially in difficult times.”

Law Enforcement Memorial Week is May 10-16, 2020.
