

Biden Campaign: Lt. Gov. Barnes votes early, discusses stakes of the election

Posted on Monday, Oct 26, 2020

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Yesterday, Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes voted in the 2020 election at an official Milwaukee ballot drop box location. After voting, Barnes was joined by Congresswoman Gwen Moore for a “Souls to the Polls” press availability ahead of Sunday services to highlight what’s at stake in this election. At the press availability, he emphasized the importance of early voting in Wisconsin and excitement for the Biden-Harris ticket. He encouraged all Wisconsinites to make their plan to vote early.

Wisconsinites can visit iwillvote.com/WI for more information on how to cast their ballot.

Watch on WISN \(ABC\) Milwaukee

“There is so much at stake in this election and you talk about this Sunday morning, how we need to get souls to the polls –so you can roll to the poll, you can stroll to the poll, however you get there just make sure you cast your ballot because this is the most important election of our lifetime,” said Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes.

Watch on WDJT \(CBS\) Milwaukee