

Biden campaign: More than a dozen black mayors in new national ad series

Posted on Monday, Oct 12, 2020

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Today, Biden for President released a series of ads featuring fourteen Black Mayors from across the country for a direct message to Black men and women about utilizing their collective power as voters during this election.

The 60-second “Mayors” ad begins airing today on television, radio, and digital outlets across the country with notable appearances by the following: Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms, Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot, New Orleans Mayor LaToya Cantrell, Charlotte Mayor Vi Lyles, Flagstaff, Arizona Mayor Coral Evans, San Francisco Mayor London Breed, Washington, D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser, Birmingham, Alabama Mayor Randall Woodfin, Columbia, South Carolina Mayor Steven Benjamin, Denver Mayor Michael Hancock, Houston Mayor Sylvester Turner, Richmond, Virginia Mayor Levar Stoney, Stockton, California Mayor Michael Tubbs and St. Paul Mayor Melvin Carter.

Watch “Mayors” HERE.

“Black Mayors Women” and “Black Mayors Men” are both 30-second ads also launching today nationally and in key battleground states — including Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, and Wisconsin. This latest ad series is part of a robust campaign push nationally and in key battleground states to educate and energize Black voters.