

Big 10 football returns as Evers examines “every possible avenue” to extend mask mandate

Posted on Wednesday, Sep 16, 2020

Today's Midday podcast covers Gov. Tony Evers saying he's "looking at every possible avenue" to determine if he can extend his mask mandate, which expires Sept. 28. The podcast also features coverage of a spike in coronavirus cases in young adults and the return of Big 10 football.